

Definitely an artist with a vision of how to use her wonderful voice and pair it up with songs that truly move you as a listener.

HELP SUPPORT THE MUSIC

become an angel

"BUSINESS ANGELS" INVEST IN START-UP BUSINESSES OR EARLY STAGE COMPANIES. "MUSIC ANGELS" FINANCIALLY SUPPORT THE CAREERS OF EMERGING ARTISTS.

Emerging artists are like early stage companies and start up businesses and their chances for success over the long term are small like any new business. With the support of Music Angels, the odds for success in the music business improve dramatically.

As Meaghan takes on more risks and greater costs for greater financial and career rewards, it becomes more difficult to build the momentum needed because it takes longer to build up the capital reserves necessary to pursue her goals and dreams. Meaghan's Angels will help keep that momentum steadily moving forward with their support.

The focus for angel support in 2012-2013 will be the costs associated with recording and getting ready to release the next album which is scheduled to be recorded in Athens GA in November 2012 with producer John Keane. Release is scheduled for September 2013. ♥
